NO TRUMP OPENINGS

The first three links all describe hands that would open 1NT or 2NT. Some of the information is dated and we will address that in our first session.

This link is probably just a little better than the one above...

Just one more view.

STAYMAN

This link is from Bridgebum which is a site I like...a lot.

<https://www.bridgebum.com/stayman.php>

A link from the ACBL (American Contract Bridge League...the organization to which most of us belong.) Their stuff is better than it was...but that is not high praise...

From BridgeHands...not a bad site.

Just one more for fun.

TRANSFER BIDS

From Bridgebum...again, great site...always worth a look.

https://www.bridgebum.com/jacoby_transfers.php

Also from Bridgebum...discusses minor suit transfers...which becomes just a little more involved than the major suit transfers.

From Bridgewebs
